Dining is one of the most important indicators of overall satisfaction for patients, long-term care residents and their families.

G.E.T. offers the ideal variety of products for this specialized service that will keep spirits up and costs down.

Industry Standard Insulated Wares

- A full assortment of insulated bowls, cups and plate holders with matching covers and lids
- Helps keep hot food hot and cold food cold for small operations with meal delivery times of 30 minutes or less

Trays of Sunshine

- Distinguish your in-room dining services from other providers with stylish trays for the best patient and resident satisfaction
- Choose vibrant, colorful plates and bowls for cheery traytop service that's anything but institutional

Successful Mealtimes

- A wide variety of colorful options means more opportunity to help patients and residents with macular degeneration to better see their food
- Studies have shown when patients can see the food on their plates it often leads to increased intake, which improves general nutrition and dignity

Industry Standard Insulated Wares

This full selection of insulated bases, domes, bowls and lids features a sleek black look and protects food in transit while keeping it at desired temperatures. They are ideal for smaller operations who deliver food within 30 minutes and are not designed to work with induction or retherm units.
